All medical authorities agree that catarrh is no more nor less than an inflammation of the liniug membrane of the nasal air passages. Nasal catarrh and all catarrhal affections of the head are not diseases of the blood, and it is a serious mistake to treat them as such. No conscientious physician ever attempts to do so. It is held by eminent medical men that sooner or later a specific will be found for every disease from which humanity suffers. The facts justify us in assuming that for catarrhat least a positive cure already exists in Ely's Cream Balm.

CALIFORNIA PRUNES.

A General Reluctance to Contract—All Speculation.

New York, June 3d.—A tour among the dealers in California prunes resulted in a general statement by them that the market is waiting developments. A few orders thus far have been placed by Eastern jobbers for the California new crop prunes at fixed prices. There is a general reluctance to contract until more satisfactory information comes in regarding the yield, and a foir idea is also in the california contract of the california comes in regarding the yield, and a foir idea is also in the california contract of the california fruit at the following prices: Royal Ann cherries, 60c@$1 10; Black Republican cherries, 75c@$0c; Black Republican cherries, 75c; Royal apricots, $1 70. for California. The deals are now strictly speculative, and commission firms are wholly in the dark as to the probable market prices. Buyers consider it prudent to wait unti the goods come in rather than to place orders at prices equivalent to those ruling on the coast. It is reported here that 6‡ cents had been paid on the coast for an average of the crop, in bags, by a San Francisco house. This price, some dealers say, is relatively too high for the trade to stock up at, in view of the prospects for a heavy French crop and the fact that some of the French packers will this year put up goods to re-semble California. This somewhat unsat-isfactory information is all that is to be elicited from reliable houses yet.

DISGRUNTLED TEUTONS. They Had Better Return to the Land

Their Birth. MILWAUKEE (Wis.), June 3d .- An Agitation Committee, appointed by a German Order, has issued a manifesto calling upon all German societies of whatever sort to unite in organized opposition to the "wicked designs" which certain classes of people, designated as the "native born," are alleged to entertain toward those of Teutonic origin. Says this manifesto: "The antipa-thy, the jaalousy and the suppressed hate oward the Germans which a large portion of the native born or non-German element of this country feels, has recently become more and more manifest, and has already found official expression in this State and other States." The committee then goes on to say that the native movement is directed against the German language, manners and customs, and that it is engineered by fanatics and Pharisees. It is proposed to organize a German central society for the objects set forth in this pronuncia

Matt Morgan Dead New York, June 3d .- "Matt" Morgan, a widely known artist, died this morning. He was born in London on April 27, 1839. after a hard struggle, managed to save him-His father was an actor and music teacher; his mother, Mary Somerville, an actress and singer. Morgan came to the United States in 1870 under engagement to Frank Leslie. Matt went to Cincinnati in 1880, where he became manager of the Stroworidge Lithographic Company, at a salary of $225 a week, and to his work there is due the present artistic perfection of theat-rical lithographing, which was formerly crude and uninviting. If the Kidneys do not act properly the following symptoms will follow:

Headache, Weakness, Pain in the Small of the Back and Loins, Flushes of Heat, Chilis, with disordered atomach and Bowels.

"I have suffered a thousand deaths since I left the army, and a more diseased Liver and Kidneys you never heard of. I tried a number of different remedies and spent al. 800, but I obtained no real benefit until I bought a dozen bottles of Simmons Liver Regulator. This preparation cured me, and I must say it is the only medicine I would give a cent for in my case."—G. H. HEARD, Richmond, Ind.

A Case of Murder.

A Case of Murder.

Boston, June 3d.—Protessor Harry W. Torry, L.L.D. of Harvard, is reported to be dying to-night at his house on Oxford street, Cambridge, of a complication of nervous disorders, and the students are held responsible for his condition. He has been ill for some time. His physician prescribed absolute quiet and rest, but Saturday night's disgraceful hurrah took place, and despite the pleadings and appeals of the other Professors the crazed students yelled and hallooed around the sick man's house all night, until he was near driven frantic, and the patient, despite the efforts of the all night, until he was near driven frantic, and the patient, despite the efforts of the attending physicians, suffered a complete relapse and has been sinking ever since, until to-night, when he is expected to die at any moment. The students are terribly distressed over this crowning piece of misfortune, caused by their thoughtlessness.

Crushed to a Pulp.

A new building in course of construction withstood the storm. Several other buildings were wrecked. The canning factor poses with one side blown in, while the Glenwood Mills are badly damaged.

Suicide of a Girl.

New York, June 3d.—Maude Fisher, a girl 18 years old, committed suicide in New Britain, Conn., by drowning herself in a reservoir, because she thought she was too wicked to live. The girl was a member of the Episcopal Church and very quiet. She was known as a most zealous Christian and was blameless in her life, but was constantly complaining that she was unable to live up to the exalted ideal which she had set for herself. Maude took off her hat and wrapped it in her shawl and laid it on the ground.

CHESTER (Penn.), June 3d .- The United States gunboat Bennington was launched at Roach's shipyard at noon in the presence of a large company. She is a twin companion of the Concord, launched a few months ago. Her dimensions are: Length, 230 feet; extreme breadth, 36 feet; displacement, 1,700 tons; two triple expansion engines, developing 3,300 horse-power with a forced draught; an armament of six 6-inch breech-loading rifles; a secondary battery of eight rapid-firing guns and revolving, cannon on rail and tripod mounts; also eight torpedo guns and a complete outfit. Heroism of a Boy.

OMAHA (Neb), June 3d.—The heroism of a boy named Mike Haley prevented the wreck of a Union Pacific flyer between here and South Omaha at a place called Summit. Young Haley was returning home when he saw two men unlock the switch and turn it. He ran to South Omaha and the Morfield train men just as the train, which consisted of twelve coaches, was pulling out. There was an unusually large number of passengers on board, and had the plot not been discov-ered the loss of life must have been great.

Cow-Boy Justice. CHEYENNE (Wyo.), June 3d .- A large nber of cow outfits are camped at Wendover, a hundred miles above this city. They are receiving over the Cheyenne and Northern Railway Texas cattle to be driven to Montana. The cow-boys have instituted a summary and to this country a new punishment for petty offenses. This evening they gave one of their number forty lashes on the bare back for stealing a saddle. There are no officers at the jumping off place, but so far the amount of lawlessness has been limited

Notes from Montana. HELENA (Mont.), June 3d .- The Helena Mining Exchange was incorporated to-day and will begin operations immediately. The incorporators are among the heaviest mine operators and owners of the State. The damage to the hotel at Broadwater by last night's fire was not over $2,000, and is fully insured. The fire originated in the basement from electric light wires, and the damage was mostly caused by the injudicious use of water in the hands of the panic-stricken hotel help. Two Girls Drowned. LEADVILLE, June 3d .- A party of young people left here yesterday morning for a ishing trip down Arkansas river. When they got to Midland Bridge a young man named Brennan attempted to assist Annie Barry and Laura May to cross upon a plank which was laid across the stream. When in the center the plank turned, after a hard struggle, managed to save him-self, but the two girls were drowned.

The Soo Line. NEW YORK, June 3d .- It is reported that negotiations are practically completed for the absorption of the Soo line by the Canadian Pacific. This line runs from Saulte Ste Marie through Minueapolis to Boynton, Dak., 800 miles. If the Canadian Pacific absorbs the road it will doubtless renew the subject lately discussed in Con-gress of the rights of the Canadian railroads in this country. Opposed to the Bill. PHILADELPHIA, June 3d .- A business men's meeting, for the purpose of protesting against the passage of the McKin-ley tariff bill, was held in this city this afternoon. Alexander K. McClure presided. Mr. Springer made the opening speech, confining himself to the woolen schedule of the bill and its effects upon carpet and other woolen industries of this city. The closing address was delivered by Breckin-ridge. Lincoln (Neb.), June 4th .- 1:45 A. M .-It has just been reported that Bradshaw, a hamlet of some 500 inhabitants, about fifty

WASHINGTON, June 3d .- Old St. John's Washington, June 3d.—Old St. John's Church was the scene of a notable wedding at 1 o'clock to-day. The bride, Miss Letitia Aldrich, a very talented and popular young lady, was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Senator Stewart of Nevada, and was received by the groom, Rounceville Wildeman, of Boise City, Idaho, and Dr. Douglass, who performed the ceremony. Senator Stewart gave the hand of the bride in marriage. There were no bridesmaids.

The bride wore a dainty traveling dress of silver-gray cloth. The panels and sides of the bodice were of gray silk, brocaded in a pattern of wild flowers. The sleeves were full and high and had Grecian drapers that were unusual and were the features of the dress. She wore a gray hat which was of French straw faced with dove-colored velvet and trimmed with gray and white flowers and gray ribbons, and had a most captivating curve that was very becoming to the bride's

It is the old story of appetite, indulgence and punishment. If you wish to know my advice as to curing bilious headache, I say—Don't get it. Eat such food as agrees with you; be temperate in all things, and be as regular as clock-work about your habits. In the case of young people this headache can always be traced to some error in diet—as sistance of the native Cubans, to control in the case of the native Cubans, to c always be traced to some error in diet—as rich food in immoderate quantities, eating at unreasonable or unusual hours, drinking wine or beer, etc., etc .- and it readily gives way to an emetic and sleep. THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE EXEMP

The United States Senate has passed a sale of liquors from the operation of the Interstate Commerce Act, so that the right | when the States were independent of each to export to such States is denied so far as other, and of general regulative authority to be in equity to restrain the diversion of such prohibited goods are concerned. Some days ago we pointed out that this issue was at hand, and then expressed doubt concerning the wisdom of enacting such a law as the Senate has committed itself to. The question is one of such grave importance, and has such strength national unity.

Our contemporary, the San Francisco Chronicle, attempts to discuss the question, but makes a sad mess of it, and proves conclusively that it is not prepared to take either side. Its stumbling, however, serves to illustrate the difficulties of the question. Thus, it starts out with the proposition that the kernel of the matter is in "the interference by Congress with the powers of tween the citizens of different States was almost impossible, and at best could be carried on only with an immense amount of friction. Worse than that, foreign commerce between the States and other countries, under these conflicting regulations, would be in a Union a source of infinite jealousy, advantage and disadvantage, and could be no true unity without uniform commercial regulations.

Now, if this is anything of argument at all, it is upon the other tack and against the bill that the Senate has just passed, so that our contemporary, in the brief space of two paragraphs, has managed to face south by north. any breaking down by it of the interstate commercial regulation that the builders of the Constitution wisely provided should be committed to Congress, but certainly with the intention that such regulation should be uniform and operative alike in From this vehement address it is obvious that the illustrious statesman was no prophet, neither had he the least concep-

Last night the California Fruit Union hipped for the East three carloads of cheries and other fruit from Yolo, Santa Clara nd Alameda counties.

Yesterday the relatives of Edward Lucey, who lost both his legs a few nights ago in the railroad yards, had him removed to a private hospital. He cannot yet be regarded as out of danger.

A ST. LOUIS PHYSICIAN. He Tests a California Production. -His Report.

A St. Louis gentleman whose affliction was sick headaches was so surprised at their cure by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, that he called it to the attention of a relative, who happened to be Dr. F. A. Barrett, the wellknown St. Louis physician of 2652 Shenandon't Street. The doctor saw at once that it differed from the potash preparations in that it was purely vegetable, and becoming interested, began a series of investigations, and in a subsequent letter candidly admitted its curative properties, and says: -

Wishing to test its virtues further, I used it in my own family, and prescribed it for patients who required a general system regulator. As a result, I can say it is an almost absolute cure for constipation, biliousness, dyspensia, indigestion, and sick heataches. These troubles usually come from a disturbed condition of the stomach and bowels, and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the best laxative and stomach regulator I have ever seen, and as a general system corrective is almost perfection.

WORLD'S FAIR.

Adopted at the Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce San Francisco, June 3d.—The adjourned meeting of the World's Fair Convention was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mayor Pend presided. Secretary Haynes read the report of the Committee on the World's Fair. The report gave the following suggestions:
1. That the World's Fair Convention be held in this city ou Thursday, the 11th day of September next.

2. Each State organization and each county government to have a representa-tion of five delegates. Each local organiza-tion two delegates, and each newspaper in the State one delegate.

3 The Governor of the State, the State

World's Fair Commissioners and their alternates, the Mayor of each city, or the Chairman of each Town Council or Board of Trustees, and the Chairman of each County Board of Supervisors to be delegates ex-offic 4. That all commercial and industrial organizations, all art, scientific and educa-tional institutions, all Chambers of Com-merce and Boards of Trade, State and local, all societies of California Pioneers, all par-lors of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, the State Board of Agriculture and district agricultural societies, the State Board of Horticulture and county horticultural societies, the State Horticultural Society, the State Board of Silk Culture, the State Board of Viticultiral Commissioners and county viticultural societies, the State Mining Bureau, the Patrons of Husbandry, all World's Fair associations which may be now or hereafter formed, all County Boards of Supervisors and all legislative bodies representing cities and towns in this State be in-

5. We recommend that an assessment of $1 be levied on each member of the Convention on Tuesday, June 3d, to defray expenses of printing, etc.
Captain Taylor offered the following res lutions as an amendment to the report That the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, of each commercial and ndustrial organization throughout the State be requested to act as delegate ex-

fficio to the World's Fair Convention

vited to send delegates.

Adopted. The second one was as follows: That an Executive Committee of ten be appointed by the Chairman with full power to act in arranging for the State World's Fair Conention as called by this body. Adopted. Mr. Hallidie moved to amend by changng the place of meeting from San Franto Sacramento. On being put to a vote the amendment was lost. The report was then adopted unani-

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

EIGHT HOURS MUST BE A DAY'S WORK ON COUNTY CONTRACTS.

Bids for Painting the Court-House Opened-Two Old Neighborhood Rows Settled.

The Board of Supervisors resumed its session yesterday afternoon, all the members being present. The first business taken up was the opening of bids for painting the County Court-House. There were three bids. A. H. Anderson offered to do the work for $779 75, Wm. Dailey & Co.'s bid was $950, and C. H. Rott & Co. presented four proposals, the lowered into the grave. lowest being $293 and the highest $1,640. The bids were referred to the Committee on Contracts. Bids for furnishing stationery were next called up, but there was only one bid

Board reluctantly called up the matter of the proposed road from Brighton to the Lower Stockton road, through the Monte Vista tract. This was the matter over which there was a grand row at the May session of the Board and which was laid over for further hearing this session.

The opposers and advocates of the proposed road were all on hand again, liberally arrayed in war paint.

B. F. Leonard opened the ball by insisting that the Board should grant the petition and open the road. He enumerated the many advantages to be had, and said it was the wish of the majority of the people living in that vignity to have such a ple living in that vicinity to have such a Jud C. Brusie, on behalf of his aunt, through whose ranch it is also proposed to extend the road, protested. He said his aunt's land was already badly cut up, and being a small ranch another road through it would injure it seriously.

Others, representing both sides, followed, and gave evidence that there was no more hope for a satisfactory agreement than there was at the last session. One of the advocates of the road, Abner Burns, got into an altercation with Supervisor Greer, and some very warm language was exchanged.

The wrangle lasted an hour or more and the Board, in desperation, finally voted to refuse the petition. The members laid back in their chairs and heaved sighs of relief.

District Attorney Bruner then appeared before the Board and made two reports. The first was in reference to the eight-hour law. He said he had examined the statute closely and had arrived at the conclusion that it was valid, and that the Supervisors in letting contracts for public work must insert a stipulation to the effect that eight hours shall constitute a day's labor on such work. His other report was used without re-registration by publishing notices to the effect that all persons who

It was the petition of C. H. Ruman and others, to have the road leading to Drytown, through Oliver Plummer's and Flint & Raymond's ranches, opened, and rea necessity.

Mr. Flint was also there, and pointed out to the Board that as the road passed through his private property he had a right the taintain gates there. If the gates were removed it would result in great damage to

The Supervisors entered into the argument, and a merry ding-dong was kept up until after 5 o'clock, when Mr. Bates moved that Flint be allowed to keep a where the road enters and makes its exit, and that such gates be allowed to stand until the Supervisors see fit to order them more cordial, more self-sacrificing than was Captain Dwyer.

The motion was carried, and an adjournment taken until to-day.

His friendship was as discriminating as helpful, and as inspiring as it was pure and constant. With a soul too sincere to entertain suspicion, and a purity of mind which excluded evil, there was a natural frankness with his friends, and a transparency of motive and feeling as charming as it was rare. We may not invade the sanctities of the home to speak of him as husband and father, or undertake to depict his private life. Suffice it to say that, throughout his long career as an active business man in this community, he evinced a faithful devotion to the public interests which marked nim as one of the most useful men in the community. HEROIC TREATMENT.

A DRUGGED SAILOR TRIES TO CU HIMSELF OPEN.

Doped and Plundered in a Robber's De -Novel Method of Getting Rid of "Poison."

There came near being a case of hari care n the city last night, and nothing but poor marksmanship with the jack-knife prevented it. About 10 o'clock a small group of gentlemen were seated on the sidewalk in front of the Union Hotel, on Second street, enjoying a quiet smoke, when a rough-looking man, dressed in blue overalls with a short frock, or "jumper," to felt, staggered along. his clothing, at about his right groin, he gave it a sweep upward nearly to his neck. The spectators, believing he had ripped open his flesh, sprang to their feet, but quick as a flash the knife went upward from the left side of the waist in a similar manner.

"They've poisoned me!" yelled the man with the knife, who was now laboring un-der great excitement. "They've put poison into me, and I want to get it out! He was about to make another jab at his abdomen with the knife, when the owner of the weapon landed a knock-out blow in his face and he fell to the sidewalk, while the knife dropped from his

He seemed quite dazed and stupid, and at first could not give his name. The officers concluded that he was an escaped lunatic, but he began to brighten up somewhat, and little by little was got to talk, and finally he told a tolerably straight story.

He said his name was Hugh Powers that he was a sailor and lately from the Arctic Ocean, but had been working on a sheep ranch near Goshen; that he came to this city yesterday with $140 in his pocket; that he went into a dive in which there manner by these pictures that could not be impressed upon them in a year's reading and listening.

he attempted to cut himself open with the knife—quite out of his mind.

He begged the officers to get his money, and on being assured that they would do so, he went quietly to a cell, where he will probably awake this morning a sober, but a sick and penniless pauper.

It is a shame that there should be such icensed dens of infamy and crime in this city where congregate men (and women, 00), who would not hesitate to take the life of a victim if necessary to carry out their schemes of robbery and plunder. Whether or not the facts in the case above referred to are as told by the man is of little consequence. These hell-holes do exist, and nightly just such outrages are practiced. There must surely be some way y which to get at the root of this evil, for it has been done in some cities. Perhaps a ittle reflection and inquiry into the sub-

The Suspect Arrested at Reno Was Not Goodwin's Slayer.

The Swede who was captured by Constable Upson at Reno, Nev., on Sunday, and who it was thought at first was the man who murdered Edward Goodwin near the beet sugar factory in this city over a week ago, turns out to be the wrong man. Sheriff McMullen received a letter from the Constable yesterday, in reply to his telegram containing a description of the murderer, and in his letter the officer says the man he captured is light complexioned, and in other respects does not tally with the description.

The Sheriff naturally feels considerably disappointed, but evinces no disposition yet to give up the search. It is expected that the reward of $300 offered by the Governor will have the effect of causing the country Constables and Sheriffs to keep their eyes open for the murderer.

I have written you this proposition as you are entirely identified in the matter, and you would be the most proper person to get hold of it. Write me at once your answer, and let it be yes. The name of the writer is withheld sim ply because his personality does not necessarily concern the public. But he shows that he is in earnest in the matter, and that he believes there would be money in it if his scheme could be carried out. It certainly is creditable to General Martine that his public spirit and desire to pro-mote the welfare of this community are ducements held out to him to derive a personal profit at the expense of the city's interests. All the more is it creditable to or cancer alone, for scrofula combines the worst him because of the opportunity afforded for the acceptance of the proposition through the apparent indifference of the public in the matter of securing its pur-chase and preservation for the city. General Martine is probably in a better position than anyone else to secure possession of the old fort, and doubtless could do so without much difficulty. But he still has a lingering hope that something may be done to save it to the city, and will use his efforts to prevent its falling into the hands of persons outside of Sacramento, who seem to have a better appreciation of its value than have our own people.

The letter printed above shows that, as a business proposition, the possession of the old fort would be a good thing, and it remains to be demonstrated-perhaps very soon and in a disagreeable manner to some of our people—whether or not Sacramento can be made to realize the fact.

A couple of weeks ago, on charges made by ex-United States Senator James G. Fair, eighteen indictments for as many alleged forgeries were found by the Grand Jury of San Francisco against H. J. Seventeen of the warrants were sent to this city for service match, and wearing a soiled whitish hat of on Palmer, on each and all of which he gave bail, amounting in the aggregate to Knowing that there were eighteen in uables and Jewels. OAKLAND, June 3d .- It has just come to OAKLAND, June 3d.—It has just come to light that some of the water-front pirates preyed upon the bodies of the victims of Friday's disaster at the open draw in Oakland. It has been reported to the police by a brother of Nellie Kearns, one of the victims, that her body was despoiled of a victims, that her body was despoiled of a diamond ring, a diamond breastpin and a pendant, and that a sealskin sacque which she wore has also disappeared. Her purse, which contained $15 when she left home, had only $2 35 in it when turned over to the police. The body of the young lady was one of the first recovered, and was removed to a saloon on Webster street near the bridge, where it was laid out on a rude stretcher to await the arrival of the Coroner. It remained there some time unguarded and surrounded by a curious crowd, so that it was quite easy for plunderers to slip the diamond ring from the fingers or the jewels from the ears. The e are informed that these articles were not on the person of Miss Kearns when the body was received at the Morgue. Every effort will be made to hunt down the miscreant who despoiled the dead

A Notable Anniversary.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3d .- To-morrow there will be celebrated by a dinner in this city the anniversary of the arrival of the steamship Panama, which steamed into San Francisco bay from a voyage through the Straits of Magellen on June 4, 1849. The steamer carried from New York 1,100 passengers, among whom were many who subsequently became distinguished. Of these there may be mentioned General John C. Fremont, General Joe Hooker, Judge McKinstry and his brother, Major McKinstry, the members of the firm of Whitehead & Waddington, Thomas B. King, Lieutenant Derby, Sam Ward, Hall McAllister, Dr. Futch, the pioneer Episcopal clergyman; H. B. Livingstone, the pioneer journalist; W. M. Gwinn, S. W. Holladay, Captain Ringgold, Edward Pooley, W. H. V. Cronise, J. H. Crossman, Colonel Robinette, the Peruvian Consul, and Colonel Hobson, the Chilean

The Panama also took out the United States Boundary Commission, under the charge of Governor Waller, landing them at San Diego. The steamship was taken from New York to Panama by Captain D D. Porter, now an Admiral of the United States Navv.

Pennoyer's Popularity.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3d.—A special dispatch to the Chronicle from Portland says the causes which led to the defeat of D. P. Thompson, the Republican candidate for Governor, are altogether local and personal.

The Prohibition Party, State Grange and the Labor Union pressivations cast their the Labor Union organizations cast their solid vote for Pennoyer, and the strife of the Republican factions in Portland caused Thompson to be cut deeply in that city.

The whole Republican State ticket, except the Governor, has about 8,000 majority, and the Republicans will have about 62 members of the Legislature out of 90.

San Francisco, June 3d .- Sheriff Hale, of Alameda county, and several deputies have been keeping up a search for engineer Dunn, in order to serve a warrant charging him with manslaughter, which was issued by Coroner Evers, of Oakland. All efforts to locate Dunn have been fruitless so far, and the officers have concluded that he is attempting to escape. Sheriff Hale has sent telegrams to all parts of the State asking for the arrest of Dunn.

Exciting School Election.

NAPA, June 3d.—An exciting School
Trustee election took place to-day. The contest was between J. F. Lamdin and H.
A. Conkling, and Lamdin was elected by a majority of 113. The total vote was 606. This was the largest vote ever polled at a school election here.

Seriously Injured.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3d.—Mrs. P. H. Look, of this city, is in a critical condition through injuries which she received at the Oakland accident last Friday. Her injuries were caused by her being pitched violently against the seats of a car. Her physicians fear she will not recover.
